HARLOW'S CREAM BALM

C.D. HARLOW & CO

Has deservedly obtained the reputation of being the most gratifying article of its kind yet placed upon the market for the immediate remedy for all roughness of the skin. Such an article is one of necessity and the Cream Bahn has found a ready acceptance by the public. To those surfaces to which cold cream, glycerine, and such toilet articles are only an aggravation, the Cream Bahn has proved itself most

In addition to its soothing qualities it is rendered highly valuable by the absence of any injurious substance, and no fear need be exercised from its application to the most delicate skins; neither will it soil the linest fabries.

By these qualities, combined with its pleasant odor, it is universally accepted by the people, and will be furnished by all druggists.

MRS. LORENZO WOOD

Thus far in our sketches of prominent people of Weymouth we have outlined ourselves to men, but from Abigail (Smith) Adams down to the present time Weymouth has had women as well as men who have distinguished themselves as feachers, scholars, singers, and also as being posessed with business and executive ability.

Mrs. L. Wood (Miss "Sadie" Barrell), the subject of this sketch may ruly be classed as among those of business and executive ability. I her veins runs the blood of a long line of Harrell and French ancestry which onnects her with the oldest families of Weymouth.

Born in Weymouth she was educated in its schools and has always her a stan a day, the regular price being 87, bership must be signed by about ten an active and enthusiastic worker in whatever perfained to public welfare.

SAMUEL W. MARSH, ALMOST A CENTENARIAN.

The oldest resident of Hingham is Mr. Sannel W. Marsh who, Dec. 27 of the present year will have attained his 96th Jürthday. In spite of his many years Mr. Marsh enjoys almost perfect health, and rejoices n the fact that it is the reward of total abstimure from absolutie drinks biring a life time of nearly one hundred years.

Mr. Marsh was born in Boston Dec. 27, 1803, his parents being David and Mary (White) Marsh. When he was a haby his parents moved from liesten to Hingham where he attended the public schools and has always exided, with the exception of Weymouth for a short time when a young man. In the latter town he was associated with a Mr. Hollis in the boot making trade. Later he was associated in the shoe Jusiness with Elijah Burr in Hingham when he removed in 1829. Hecember 3, 1826 he married Miss Susan Nash, daughter of Capt. Timothy Nush, by whom he had seven children, six of whom are now living, Charles N., Calch, H., Mrs. Moses Leavitt, Rev. William G., Mrs. Stanley Mears, and Miss Martha B. Marsh. Rev. William G. Marsh is a popular elergyman in Australia, and Charles N. Marsh is town clerk of Hingham, having tilled that office nost acceptably for many years. Mr. Marsh's wife died July 21, 1881 at the advanced age of 75.

For many years Mr. Marsh has been a member of the Universalist hurch, serving for years as deacon. A number of years ago he became an ordent prohibitionist and every year easts his vote for that party. He says me reason why he has lived so long is because the Lord wants to show that c man can exist without rum. Mr. Marsh is also a member of the Hingham Agricultural Society and is an honorary member of the Hingham Vet ice. eran Firemen's Association. In early life he was a member of Old Torrent Hand Tub Fire Company at West Hingham. Two years ago be lest his eyesight which handicaps his movements, but he finds plenty of annisement in walking out every day or entertaining eallers with playing a music loc and well established bee Busi-

THE ORIGIN OF GRINGO. ft In the Some filten by Mextenn

All the way from Colifornia comes a fittle story of the origin of "gringo," the name given by the Mexicaos to all Luglish and Americans. The writer, who recently returned from a tri through Mexico, says;

"While in Gauyams I met a scarap-tain by the name of Brace, then com-mander of the schooner La Union, He asked me if I would like to take a trip asked me if I would like to lake a trip with lain to a small seaport village called Ajiavampo, 65 miles down the Galf of California, near the month of both the Mayo and Yuqui rivers. We had been on shore probably hadf an bour when we loard that the nati nour when we locard that the natives were celebrating the anniversary of a saint, and were having a great time. I invited the captuln to accompany me to see it, and the host welcomed me cor-dially and told me to bring in my companion, 'el gringo.'

un old lady, whose name Heurn Fabiana Murrieta de Parcel. She that she was 90 years old and had bee unrived to a 'gringo' 32 years. She the explained why the Americans wer called 'gringos,' in follows: ""Mount the year '10 (meaning (810)

"About the year '10 (menting ($10),' she legan, 'a great amny of us, then, of course, girls, were surplised to see a great crowd coming ashore in some beats from a burne (menuing a ship) in the port of Gaay man and singing a song that my husband tanglet me to pronounce. That was "Green Growthe Meadows." If course, all we girls could catch were the first two sentunes, "green grows." Therefore, when we saw them walking in group, we claristened them "gringros," and there you have the origin of the word." there you love the origin of the word."

HARLOW'S CREAM BALM

Has deservedly obtained the reputation of being the most gratitying article of its kind yet placed upon the market for the immediate remedy for all roughness of the skin. Such an article is one of necessity and the Cream Bahn has found a ready acceptance by the public. To those surfaces to which cold cream, glycerine, and such toilet articles are only an aggravation, the Cream Balm has proved itself most
